

Geography Knowledge Organiser Year 5

Enquiry Question: Do we have a choice or has our destiny already been decided for us?

Concepts: Rights, Stewardship, Free Will, Dreams.

I will know (knowledge):

- Locate and name countries and cities in Europe and identify their human and physical characteristics.
- Locate main alpine countries of Europe, i.e. France, Switzerland, Austria, Italy
- Explain the significance of position of a country and how that can have an impact on physical and human features.
- Describe and understand physical and geography of mountains – see key vocabulary.

I will be able to (skills):

- Use maps and atlases to locate countries and identify key physical/human features.
- Recognise and describe physical and human processes.
- Carry out an investigation using my geographical knowledge.
- Use a compass and maps with four figure grid references.
- Use OS maps to interpret a place looking at contour lines and symbols.
- Record information using a range of methods and interpret results to look for patterns.
- Describe how a range of physical and human processes change the environment.
- Identify questions and selects appropriate ways to gather information and data through detailed sketches, observation, questionnaires, surveys, measuring data.
- Record information using a range of methods and interpret results to look for patterns.

Key Vocabulary:

Physical geography, Human geography, Scale, Longitude, Latitude, Hemisphere, Tropic of Cancer, Tropic of Capricorn, Fold mountains, Volcanic mountains, Plateau mountains, Fault block mountains, Dome mountains, Alps, region, currency, temperature.